SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

The apostles were a diverse group, called from different occupations, each with strengths and weaknesses. But they worked toward a common goal of spreading the good news of Jesus, establishing the church as a community of faith and handing on the Gospel to people of every nation, race and way of life.

They were successful because they instilled faith in the person and message of Jesus.

As members of the Church, we inherit the task of the Apostles. It is our mission to invite others to believe, to share the work and live the life of a Christian. Like those who have gone before us, we will be successful not because we are good, but because we are holy. All that we have and all that we are is rooted in Christ. That makes all the difference.

PRAYER FOR THOSE LIVING ALONE

Creator God, you looked upon Adam and said,
"It is not good for the man to be alone."

And so you created Eve as a partner, soul mate and friend.
Look now with mercy upon all your children who remain alone or live far from those they love.

Be their source of comfort when evening falls.

Be their companion when the road seems long. Be their strength when courage fails.

Be the guiding star of hope even during the darkest night.

Surround them with Your angels to protect them at all times,
and may their souls find consolation

In knowing so many are holding them up in prayer at this very hour.

Amen.

Put yourself in Thomas' place. When the risen Jesus appeared to the other disciples, you were absent. Now they are insisting that not only did they see him, but he breathed the power of the Holy Spirit on them. Poor Thomas! You definitely feel left out. So you insist that you will never believe unless you get to stick your finger into Jesus' wounded hands and side.

A week later you have an opportunity to be true to your word. Jesus once again appears and invites you to touch and examine his wounds. Your doubts are blown away! You exclaim, "My Lord and my God!" Jesus points out that you believe because you have seen him for yourself.

Office of Social Ministry—Janet Mitchell 261-1876PRE-PLANNING WORKSHOP

Due to the overwhelming demand for another pre-planning workshop we will have one more. The date will be May 13th, from 1-3 pm in the Ministry Center Hall. We have had over 200 people attend the last three workshops and are doing one more this year. We plan to do 2 during the season so if you are year-round residents you might want to sign up for the May session. Please know that we discuss many issues other than what music and readings to choose and this is a chance to have many of your questions answered.

SHEETS NEEDED FOR BANDAGES

We have a group that meets here in the Church Hall to make bandages for the missions. They would appreciate having your old cotton sheets and men's dress shirts, any color, any size. They can be left in the Church Hall on the stage and marked "for bandages". For information, call Mary Silva, 261-8747. Thank you for helping with this ongoing work of mercy.

Jesus, I Trust in You

Sunday, April 19, 2008

2:00 – 3:45 p.m.

Recitation of the Rosary, Procession Of the Divine Mercy Image with Knights of Columbus, Blessing and veneration of Divine Mercy Image, Exposition of the Most Blessed Sacrament, Scripture reading, Commentary on Divine Mercy, Singing of the Divine Mercy Chaplet, Benediction
 Father George Ratzmann, Presiding

Our Lord requests through Saint Faustina's Diary:

"I desire that the first Sunday after Easter be the Feast of Mercy" (Diary, 299)

"I desire that the Feast of Mercy be a refuge and shelter for all souls but especially for poor sinners. I pour out a whole ocean of graces upon these souls who approach the fount of My Mercy. The soul that will go to confession and receive Holy Communion shall obtain complete forgiveness of sins and punishment ... let no soul fear to draw near to me, even though its sins be many." (Diary, 699)

"I promise that the soul that will venerate this image will not perish. I also promise victory over its enemies already here on earth, especially at the hour of death. I Myself will defend it as My own glory."

(Diary, 47, 48)

A plenary indulgence has been granted by the Vatican to the faithful who, on this day, take part in prayers and devotions held in honor of Divine Mercy. The indulgence requires sacramental confession, Eucharistic communion and prayer for the intention of Pope Benedict. For information contact Fred or Barb Goduti at 239-261-4810.

FROM THE DIOCESE:

Retrouvaille is a lifeline for troubled marriages. The program consists of a weekend experience and six follow-up sessions. If you or someone you know is experiencing trouble in their marriage, go to www.HelpOutMarriage.com, or call Steve and Linda Smith 239-395-0810, or 1-800-470-2230. All inquiries are confidential.

Marriage Encounter Weekend - Scripture says about married people "Two shall live as one". How often do you find yourselves living as two? A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can help you get back to basics in this complicated day and age. The next local weekend is April 24-26 in Sarasota. Call 941-962-9904 or go to wwme.org for more information.

FROM FATHER PHIL MORRIS:

Dear Father George, Members of the Parish Staff and Parishioners of St. William church

I write to express my heartfelt gratitude for the opportunity to serve in part time ministry among you and for the warm and welcoming hospitality you have extended to me.

It has been truly uplifting to be part of such a faith-filled Christian community, to participate in your spirited liturgies, and to witness so many Christ-like expressions of generosity to those in Need. I can recall many personal pastoral encounters that have truly inspired me.

On April 15th I take leave of St. William to return to N.J. and my part-time ministry at St. Rose of Lima in Short Hills. God willing, I look forward to returning to St. William next January. I will hold the staff and members of the parish in prayer.

May the peace of our Risen Savior be with you all.

Fr. Phil
